Dear Group Leader,

We are excited at your consideration of camping with us for a fantastic time of worship, relationships, and fun. We look forward to providing the program so that you can spend time building relationships with your campers. As such we are asking you to look forward with us to plan what may well be the most memorable event in the life of your camper, or in the life of a sponsor. This looking forward requires all of us to anticipate the unknown, but as we do it together and observe the deadlines that have been established, we will have done everything we can to make sure this event is life changing.

If you need more information on the event details, please check the website. If you are ready to plan your event, then we ask you to please read the following instructions carefully to make sure that all procedures are clearly understood. Should you have any questions please feel free to give us a call. LET'S GO CAMPING!

GROUP BOOKING MODIFICATIONS

Once you have completed the GROUP BOOKING FORM and sent it in with the deposit you have successfully reserved bed spaces, unless we were sold out and you were put on a waiting list. In managing reservations, we understand that things change, and know that they change in a variety of ways. As such we have outlined below the scenarios that we commonly encounter when Group Bookings need to be modified. Should you need to make modifications please contact our office at 970-385-4389.

Gender Count MODIFICATION (only to trade previously reserved spaces for additional spaces of the opposite gender.)

I am keeping the same number of reservations, but I wish to trade previously reserved space for additional space of the opposite gender. Or, I am keeping the same numbers, but I wish to reduce the number of students and increase the number of sponsors (for either gender), or vice versa.

Conditions: There must be space available in the cabins to accommodate the change.

Obligations: There are no additional obligations when making these changes.

Booking DECREASE

I wish to DECREASE the number of spaces I have reserved for camp.

Conditions: There are no conditions that will prevent a decrease in your reservations.

Obligations: When cancellations are made there is an automatic forfeit of the deposit for each space. If this decrease is made after the Registration Deadline there is a commitment to pay the FULL REGISTRATION PRICE for each space.

Booking INCREASE

I wish to INCREASE the number of spaces I have reserved for camp.

On or before the REGISTRATION DEADLINE

Conditions: There must be space available in the cabins to accommodate the change.

Obligations: As with the original reservations, additional reservations must be accompanied by a non-refundable deposit. If a cancellation is made before the Registration Deadline only the deposit is forfeited. If a cancellation is made after the deadline there is a commitment to pay the FULL REGISTRATION PRICE for each space even if the reservation is later cancelled.

After the REGISTRATION DEADLINE

Conditions: There must be space available in the cabins to accommodate the change.

Obligations: As with the original reservations, additional reservations must be accompanied by a non-refundable deposit. If a cancellation is made after the Registration Deadline there is a commitment to pay the FULL REGISTRATION PRICE for each space even if the reservation is later cancelled.

THE PROCESS

1. Call the Hesperus office. You will be sent a form to sign and return to the office to finalize your changes.
2. The form and the respective deposits must be received at the camp office BY THE APPROPRIATE DEADLINE to secure reservations. Forms/deposits received after the Registration Deadline will be charged a LATE charge of $25.00 per person.

To clarify registration policies, we have defined the intent of the policies and described scenarios to help explain how the policies play out in typical situations.

Registration Deadline – The last day on which a camper or sponsor may register at the published price and be guaranteed a T-shirt. This date is established in order that we can order T-shirts and have numbers on which to base other decisions. Suggestion: Make your church's registration deadline early enough to allow you time to get your registration to the camp by the deadline. You may register as early as you like.

FAQ: When is my form and deposit due in the office? ANSWER: By the close of business on the deadline day. Please do not wait to mail your registration on the deadline as it will not be in the office on time. You need to determine what it takes to get your church's reservations into our office by the deadline and then set your church sign up deadline accordingly. For instance, if our deadline is on Monday, you will not be able to hold your sign up open through the Sunday before unless you intend to drive your form and deposit to the camp on Monday. If you need to mail your reservations, consider closing your sign up a few days or a week earlier.

Remember:

- If there is no signed form with a corresponding deposit, then a reservation does not exist.
- Events are selling out so you must begin to think about making reservations early to secure places for your church. Most churches know historically how many they bring to camp and can reserve at least a few spaces early, then add more spaces as you see the need. Pass the responsibility on to the campers.

FAQ: Can a camper / sponsor register after this deadline? ANSWER: YES. Registration is open until Registration CLOSED Date, which is 4 days prior to the starting event day. However, you do need to call to verify space availability before bringing an unregistered person to camp.

Cancellation Deadline – The same date as the Registration Deadline. Cancellation after this date carries a full price commitment. This date is established so that, in the event of a sold-out camp, we can give group leaders enough time to make alternate plans for their group. This means that we are turning people away, and if you cancel after this time, we may not have anyone to fill the bed and we lose ministry and income opportunity. We are also making financial commitments in preparation for the camp and must be able to recover the costs.

Deposit – The dollar amount required to hold a bed space for your group. It is non-refundable and non-transferrable. For Hesperus it does not represent a particular individual, only a bed space.

FAQ: My church cannot afford to pay money that far in advance. ANSWER: Consider passing the deposit obligation on to the camper as it will encourage ownership and accountability.

FAQ: Johnny registered with our church to come to camp, but he cannot attend, and it is after the Cancellation Deadline. Can Bobby come in his place? ANSWER: YES. We do not care who is in the bed until the day camp starts. You have simply reserved a bed space. Exception: If you reserved a space for a girl and want to replace her with a boy, you need to call the camp first to verify space availability in the boy's cabin (and vice versa).
